WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair, northwesterly winds, becoming variable, followed Tuesday night or Wednesday morning by rain.

EASTER SUNDAY.—All the churches had large congregations yesterday. The preachers told the oft-repeated story of the resurrection. Grand choral and solo music poured forth from the choirs and in every way Easter was celebrated religiously in a manner fully equal to other years. Washington, St. Asaph, Prince, Duke, Royal and most of the central thoroughfares presented an animated and charming scene after the services at the various churches were over. It was the annual dress parade of society which marks the coming of the Easter-tide. Womankind, decked out in the inevitable Easter bonnet and wearing new dresses, turned out en masse to attend church, and when the services were over the streets were the grand promenades. It was almost impossible to see a lady who did not have on a new dress. The Easter bonnet reigned in all its glory, and divided honors with the new spring gown, with the balloon sleeves. The ladies looked their best, and the men who accompanied them were not behind in the display of wearing apparel. For a while in the afternoon Washington and King streets were alive with people, but the cloudy, rainy weather which followed about 4 o'clock had the effect of clearing the streets to some extent.

EASTER SERVICES.—The music at St. Paul's Church yesterday was very appropriate to the interesting occasion, and was rendered in fine spirit and in perfect harmony with the glorious day which all christendom delights to commemorate. The selections were elaborate, difficult and beautiful, and while given with energy and vigor, full of gladness and thanksgiving, it was not at the expense of fine phrasing and accurate intonation. The entire choir showed judicious management, good training and well balanced voices. It was all that could be desired; in short a spiritual exaltation. The personnel of the choir has already been given but special mention may be made of the soprano solo in the Jubilate, which is arranged from the Stabat Mater, and the offertory "Christ is Risen" by Shelley, by Miss Carrie Evans, which were given with marked excellence, exhibiting most approved method and superior timbre; the phrasing and sustaining power proving careful cultivation. Miss Myra Civalier's solos in the Passover and the hymn "At the Lamb's high feast we sing" were good in tone and time, sweet and graceful. The alto solo in the hymn by Miss Florence Evans was delightful, sympathetic and effective. The bass solos given by Mr. Geo. Evans in the Passover and the hymn and were rendered in his usual acceptable style; the low resonant notes rolling out in melodious cadence. Mr. Geo. Kennedy was a valuable accession to the choir and sang with much good taste and good intonation a baritone solo in the Passover. Special mention should be made of the tenor solos in the Te Deum and Jubilate by Dr. Mac Namee, of Washington, who on short notice supplied the place of Mr. Frank Field, who was unavoidably absent. He has good style and a melodious voice. The accomplished organist and director, Mr. Sherman Fowler, presided at the organ, which is saying for the excellence of the work. Taking it all in all the occasion was one long to be pleasantly remembered.

More joyous and Easter, the forty days of vigil had ended in cloud and storm. The worshippers over all the world rose to meet their risen Lord, who chose the sweet spring time to manifest His resurrection power. When earth speaks with her thousand voices of life from death, so it is meet that the glad hallelujahs should be of high order. The service in Christ Church was in keeping with the holy day. The rector, Rev. Dr. Suter, preached most impressively. The choir, under the skillful leadership of Miss Katharine H. Stuart, has been brought to a true standard of excellence, and rendered the best and most churchly music for the occasion, and the accomplished organist, Mrs. C. C. Lennon, brought out in fullest measure the beautiful chords of harmony. The selections were from the finest composers, and while each one of the "sweet singers" added to the rich strains so perfectly rendered, from the rich strains, piece (Barnaby's) "Awake Up My Glory" to the final Alleluia, yet some portions were more exquisite, by reason of the added richness of the cultivated voice of Miss Bradley, of New Orleans, with the beautiful soprano of Miss Blanche Rotchford and the full, deep tones of the fine bass voice of Mr. Hatley Norton, so that in solo, duet or chorus was brought out new and truer meaning to every part of that grandest of uninspired songs, the "Te Deum."

At Grace Church the day was begun with a full musical celebration of the Holy Communion, for which a large congregation gathered. The chancel was resplendent with beautiful potted plants, and cut flowers decked the altars. At 9 o'clock began the children's carol service, which was a full musical service likewise. The Lenten offerings were brought, Easter praises were given and annual reports made. The total amount of offerings for the year was $104.93. A delightful feature of this service is that then the children of the morning school and the mission school meet as one body. The combined roll is nearly 180 children and about 24 teachers and officers. One pleasant incident of the festival yesterday was the presentation to the rector of a handsome oak study desk by the ladies of the congregation. The presentation was made by Mr. George Darley, who voiced the affectionate regard of the people for the rector in a very happy speech. The response of the rector was a very feeling one. The services at 11 and 7:30 were well attended, notwithstanding the rain late in the evening. The rector preached in the morning on the relation of the passion and resurrection of Christ to our religious life; and at night upon the present existing proof of the resurrection.

Easter was celebrated in the usual elaborate manner in St. Mary's church which was crowded with worshippers. The services were appropriate to the occasion and were of unusual interest. The musical feature of the day was a decided success, the choir—Mrs. Monroe, Mrs. Brill, Mrs. Dwyer, and Misses M. Greenwell, K. Nugent, M. Lyle, L. Greenwell and H. Hill, and Messrs.

ARRESTED THREE TIMES.—Some excitement was created in Fishtown yesterday by the disorderly conduct of a colored woman known as Sarah Levi. The woman had become incensed at a female of her own color and applied all sorts of epithets to her. The assailed party, who was engaged in cutting fish at the time, flourished her knife and threatened to use it, but finally concluded to have the Levi woman arrested. The latter left $5 collateral for her appearance this morning and retraced her steps to Fishtown where she reopened her batteries of abuse and was rearrested. She was fined $5 for the second offense, and after leaving the Police Court this morning she once more sought the object of her fury and was taken in custody for the third time.

A DROP IN THE TEMPERATURE.—The rain Saturday evening was followed during the night by clear, cooler weather and a northwesterly wind, and during the morning there was every indication for a fair Easter Sunday, but in the afternoon cloudiness set in, and between three and four o'clock a loud settled in the southern heavens from which thunder and lightning emanated. There was a sprinkling of rain here, but a few miles below the city there was a veritable tempest of hail and rain. In the Mount Vernon neighborhood the storm was especially severe. The temperature fell materially in a few minutes' time, and about five o'clock a shower passed over this city. A stiff northwest wind then cleared the skies and the weather to-day has been clear and cool.

INVITATION DECLINED.—The Ladies' Auxiliary to Lee Camp on Saturday wrote to Mrs. Jefferson Davis, who is now in Richmond, inviting her and her daughter, Miss Winnie, to stop in this city on their way to Washington and attend a reception that would be given them. This morning the ladies received a reply from Mrs. Davis expressing regrets that her feeble health would prevent her accepting the kind invitation, and saying that Miss Winnie Davis's engagements in Washington would also prevent her from accepting. Mrs. Davis said, however, that she expected to be in this part of the country next fall when she will be very glad to visit Alexandria.

On Saturday evening the High School baseball nine defeated St. Alban's School, of Radford, by a score of 3 to 0. The game was stopped at the end of the third inning by reason of the rain.

E. Lyles, R. Wenzel, W. Whitcomb, P. Downer, T. Burroughs, E. Birrell and J. H. Strider—rendering inspiring music. A feature of the vespers service in the evening was a solo, rendered by Miss Mai Ceenwell, which was pronounced by all present to be one of the best ever heard in this city.

EASTER FESTIVALS.—The Easter Festival of Christ Church Sunday school was held yesterday at 5 p. m. The children marched in procession by classes singing "Onward, Christian Soldiers." All the carols were heartily and beautifully sung. This is always a special feature on such occasions, and brought forth a well deserved compliment from the rector. Each class sent up its money offering by a member, which was received by Dr. Suter, while another brought a portion of the floral design, received by Mr. G. L. Boothe, who arranged it in order, which when completed formed the two tables of the law with a large cross thrown astride, formed with the words "Jesus Christ," a type of Him who through obedience to the law redeemed man from its curse. The collection, which was for diocesan missions, amounted to $145. Total for the year $235.

The festival of St. Paul's Sunday school was held in the church at five o'clock, and was a beautiful sight. The bright banners and lovely flowers carried by the children were not more bright than their happy faces. As the floral emblems and the offerings of each class were carried up the rector, Rev. P. P. Phillips, made some very beautiful and appropriate remarks on the names of the classes, which was a very pleasant feature of the exercises. Among the emblems was an exquisite pyramid of lilies given by the infant class in loving memory of the late lamented pastor, Rev. Geo. H. Norton. These were placed in the front—a most appropriate place—as he had baptized most of the little ones. The rector made some very impressive remarks on the presentation of this sweet memorial, also of a lovely collection made of white pinks presented by the school in affectionate remembrance of one who had been found faithful in his day and generation, Mr. Stephen A. Green, sr. The singing of the children under the direction of Mr. Sherman Fowler and led by Mr. George Evans, was excellent, showing much careful training. The children's offerings amounted to $185.03.

THE CHURCHES.—Services were conducted in the different churches of the city yesterday according to the announcements made on Saturday and all were largely attended. The pulpits were all occupied by the resident clergy. Rev. J. T. Williams, the recently appointed pastor of the M. E. Church South, preached there for the first time and made a most favorable impression. At the Episcopal, Catholic and German Lutheran churches the usual Easter services were conducted and in some of the other churches appropriate references to the day were made.

OPERA HOUSE.—Miss Ellen Vockey, the charming German actress, will appear at the Opera House to night in "The Dramatic Author" and "The Widow's Victim" supported by the popular young actor, Lawrence Manning, and a carefully selected company. Miss Vockey is one of the most accomplished young actresses on the stage, having been educated in Leipzig and Berlin and being a fine linguist, a thorough musician and most artistic actress. Mr. Manning has had the best of training in the support of Lawrence Barrett, Maude Granger, Stuart Robson and others. Messrs. Bertram Temple and Richard Buhler render capable support. Mr. Geo. Graham, a native of this city, is the comedian proper of the company, and has quite a reputation as a vaudeville artist. Miss Jennie Langley, the comedienne, is a singer and comedienne of considerable note. A large party of friends of Miss Vockey from Washington will attend the performance.

A picturesque Tour of the World personally conducted by Mr. Roland Yorke, of Grenock, Scotland, assisted by Miss Jessie Montrose, soprano soloist, of Edinburgh, Scotland, combining the best features of the stereopticon and concert will be the attraction at the Opera House Wednesday night.

ARRESTED THREE TIMES.—Some excitement was created in Fishtown yesterday by the disorderly conduct of a colored woman known as Sarah Levi. The woman had become incensed at a female of her own color and applied all sorts of epithets to her. The assailed party, who was engaged in cutting fish at the time, flourished her knife and threatened to use it, but finally concluded to have the Levi woman arrested. The latter left $5 collateral for her appearance this morning and retraced her steps to Fishtown where she reopened her batteries of abuse and was rearrested. She was fined $5 for the second offense, and after leaving the Police Court this morning she once more sought the object of her fury and was taken in custody for the third time.

On Saturday evening the High School baseball nine defeated St. Alban's School, of Radford, by a score of 3 to 0. The game was stopped at the end of the third inning by reason of the rain.

APPROACHING WEDDING.—The marriage of Miss Lucy Addison Hester, daughter of Mrs. Henry Brown Turner, jr., and Mr. Henry Brown Turner, jr., of New York city will take place at Trinity Episcopal Church, Washington, next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The ceremony will be performed by the uncle of the bride, Rev. Dr. Addison, assisted by Rev. Mr. Perry, of St. Andrew's Church. The bride will be attended by her sister, Miss Mary Louise Hester, as maid of honor, and three maids, Misses Mack Payne, of Warrenton; Maude Wheat, of this city, and Mary Brown. The ushers will be Messrs. F. G. Turner and Edwin Montgomery, of New York, John C. Critchler and Geo. Robinson, of this city, and Dr. Richard Washington and Frank D. Hester. The bride will be given away by her brother, Mr. William B. Hester, and the best man will be Mr. Wm. F. Whyland, of New York. The bridal party will be preceded to the altar by chorists, singing a bridal hymn to the music of Loehengrin's wedding march. After the wedding there will be an informal reception at the residence of the bride's mother, No. 1419 Q street northwest Washington, at which only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few friends will be present.

POLICE COURT.—Mayor Strauss presiding.—The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Two white and six colored tramps, arrested by Officers Ferguson, Sherwood, Howson and Grady for defacing the property of Mr. M. Schuler, were sent to the chain gang for thirty days.

Sarah Levi, colored, arrested by Officer Griffin for disorderly conduct, was fined $5. She had forfeited $5 on a previous occasion for a similar offense, and was rearrested again on the same charge this morning.

Samuel Conway, colored, arrested by Officers Ferguson and Beach for assaulting Mary Phillips, colored, was fined $5, and the woman $2 for disorderly conduct.

George Johnson, colored, arrested by Officer Arrington for disturbing a religious meeting, was fined $5.

Night Report.—Last night was clear and cool. Three prisoners and eight lodgers were at the station house.

RAID ON A BARN.—Officers Ferguson, Sherwood, Howson and Grady on Saturday night made a raid on Mr. M. Schuler's barn, a short distance outside the city limits, and captured two white and six colored tramps, who had built a fire from boards pulled from the barn. This place has been a rendezvous for tramps for years, and though crowds have often been driven from it by the Alexandria police there is hardly a night in which itinerants have not possession of it. The nomads were arraigned before the Mayor this morning. A razor was taken from one of them and several long-bladed knives, together with a pack of cards, a bunch of keys and a bunch used by burglars to break locks. They were sent to the chain gang for thirty days.

FIRE DEPARTMENT HORSES.—On Saturday evening Mr. W. J. Hammond's horse, which had been used by the fire department for two months, was returned to its owner, and yesterday morning "Bill" and "Frank," the pair that have been in service in the Columbia company for so many years, were turned over to Mr. Richard S. Windsor, the fire wardens having accepted his offer for their purchase on Saturday night. Several pairs of horses have been examined, but no definite statement can be made as to what the wardens propose to do in the matter of purchasing. The wardens have purchased a horse from Mr. John Millan, of Loudoun, for the Hydraulion company, for $110, and sold one of the Hydraulion horses to Mr. John McWilliams for $80.

Egg-BOLLING.—A large number of young people engaged in Easter egg-rolling to-day at different places on the environs of the city and some others sought secluded spots on the line of the electric railway. The neighborhood of Shuter's Hill attracted most of those bent on the diversion. A policeman from the city patrolled the neighborhood in order to prevent any conflicts between blacks and whites.

LAUNCH POSTPONED.—Owing to the prevailing low tide, occasioned by the northwest winds of the past twenty-four hours, it was impossible to launch the steamer Howard Cassard this afternoon, as had been announced. The steamer will be launched, however, on the first day conditions are favorable.

FISH.—Since Saturday about 200,000 herring and 3,000 shad have arrived at Fishtown. Herring sold to-day at $2.50 per thousand and shad at $10.25 per hundred.

The barn of Mr. E. J. Galpin, near Falls Church, was burned Thursday with all its contents. Some children were playing with matches in the barn, which were ignited and caused the burning. Mr. Galpin's loss is quite heavy.

Mr. Norman Gibbs' lunch room at Mount Vernon was broken open last night by thieves and robbed of a number of articles.

VESTRYMEN ELECTED.—The following gentlemen were to-day elected vestrymen for Christ Church: E. S. Leadbeater, W. A. Smoot, G. W. Ramsay, Dr. Bedford Brown, Dr. Wm. Gibson, Dr. D. N. Rust, Hubert Snowdon, L. M. Blackford, Lawrence Washington, Ashby Miller, G. L. Boothe and John Slater.

Grace Church will elect vestrymen to-night.

A SUCCESSFUL REVIVAL.—Eighty-six persons joined the communion of the Baptist church yesterday morning—the fruits of the revival services which have been conducted in that church during the past three weeks. Such a scene is unprecedented in the history of the church, so large a number never having heretofore presented themselves in front of the pulpit. One lady convert was baptized before the morning service on Saturday. At night a large congregation was present and was edited by a practical sermon from the pastor, Rev. Mr. Butler. Seven persons made application for membership at this service and a number signified their intention of becoming members of some evangelical denomination. Services will be held again to-night.

FUNERALS.—The funeral of Miss Cora Isabel Field took place yesterday morning, at 10:15 o'clock, from the residence of her mother, on Prince street. Rev. T. E. Carson conducted the funeral services, having come back from Roanoke especially for that purpose. The interment was private.

The funeral of Mrs. Virginia Maxwell took place from her late home on Wolfe street, on Saturday evening. The services were conducted by Rev. P. P. Phillips and the pall-bearers were Charles Hawkins, Lynes Dolan, George Markell, and George Perrell, of this city, and the Messrs. Gillingham, of Fairfax county.

THE RACES.—There was about 2,500 people at the races at St. Asaph to-day, with 21 book-makers in attendance. In the first race Darkness jumped over the field fence and was ruled off. The first four races resulted as follows:

Second race, 1 mile.—Logan won, Little Mat second, Equity third. Time 1:47.

FAIRFAX DEMOCRATS.—At the democratic primary held in Fairfax county on the 11th instant, the following candidates were nominated: For Commonwealth's Attorney, James M. Love; For Treasurer, Robert Wiley; For Sheriff, George A. Gordon; For Commissioner of the Revenue (South Side), John N. Ballard; for Commissioner of the Revenue (North Side), Samuel A. Wrenn.

Leon Waters, who was arrested in Baltimore last week on suspicion of having attempted to pass counterfeit money, was taken to Washington yesterday and locked up to answer to a charge of embezzlement.

Mr. F. A. C. Terrett died at his residence, near Fairfax Courthouse, on Saturday at the age of 73 years. Mr. Terrett was a true type of the old Virginia gentleman. He leaves several children and a large circle of friends.

It is said that the Southern Railway will erect a three-story paint shop here in the near future. It will be equipped with an elevator for raising cars to the second floor, where they will be finished up. This will give employment to about 150 men who are now out of work.

Among the articles taken from some tramps Saturday night was a bunch of keys believed to belong to some store in this city. The owner can obtain them from Captain Webster at the station house. The tramp says he found them in the pocket of a coat which had been given him.

The annual meeting of the Bishops of the Catholic Church in the province of Baltimore will be held to-morrow at the residence of Cardinal Gibbons. Bishop Van de Vyver, of Richmond, will be present. The meeting will be the purpose of conferring on matters relating to the various dioceses.
